F/S VOLLEYBALL

MORGAN DELANEY

Morgan Delaney is always positive and full of energy! She is one of the first players to cheer on her teammates and always shows great sportsmanship. Morgan brings laughter and happiness to our team every day.

CARLY CHEAP

Position: Middle blocker & Right Side

Carly displays hard work and leadership in the classroom and on the court. Her dedication is essential to her team and she has their best interest in mind every time. Her presence on the court is one that every team should have. She averages 1.25 kills, 2 aces and a block per match. I can rely on Carly to help pick up her teammates and I am fortunate to have had Carly a part of this year's JV volleyball team.

STEPHANIE MALKI

Stephanie is nominated for her outstanding dedication and inspiration to the St. Lucy's tennis team. As co-captain, she has been a leader on and off the court for her teammates. She has not missed practice or a match and was recently recognized as MVP Doubles for the Sierra League along with her partner. She is academically motivated and demonstrates her maturity as a senior with the younger players. Without a doubt, St. Lucy's tennis is stronger because of her athletic abilities and her desire to carry on a tradition of outstanding academics and athletics at St. Lucy's.

RAYNA ENRIQUEZ

Rayna has made massive improvements over the course of the season, which has placed her among the top runners on the team. After opening the season with a pair of 24-minute performances at Dana Hills Invitational (24:13) and Sierra League Meet #1 (24:04), she dropped into the 23-range with a 23:15 at the Top Speed Invite. She ended the season with a thirty-second improvement, a 22:44 at Sierra League meet #3
