WINTER SPORTS 2017

REGENT ATHLETICS

BASKETBALL: VARSITY

Caitlyn Moore, 12

Caitlyn Moore, affectionately referred to as “mom”, has given the team a parental compass to navigate through the season. She has been on the varsity basketball team for 3 years and was a starter on this year’s team. She has provided the leadership for warming up the players for practice. She has the responsibility of seeing that we have balls at each game. Caitlyn took care of the little details that made the team run efficiently. Her positive attitude, pleasant personality, and empathic heart made her a vital asset to the team. She personifies the Regent athlete and is very worthy of the distinction of being a Roarie Regent Athlete.

Danielle Tostado, 12

Kim has been nominated for the Roarie Regent Athlete Award because she is always first to show concern for her teammates. She tries her best every time. She picks her teammates up when they are down and is always ready with some comic relief.

Kim has had 18 put outs on the field and continues to always positively push through any struggles that cross her path.

BASKETBALL: JUNIOR VARSITY

Julia Pascua, 10

Julia has exhibited great teamwork and was a model of good sportsmanship throughout the season. She continuously worked hard, improving each day. Julia played as a guard and displayed a willingness to learn during every practice.

REGENT ATHLETE AWARD

Cierra Aparicio, 9

Cierra played a post position and has been an asset to the team since she first joined during the summer. Her positive attitude and drive made a great impact on the team's growth throughout the season. Cierra's hard work, commitment, and desire to become a better player encouraged her teammates to do the same.

SOCCKER: VARSITY

Danielle Berch, 10

Dani never gave up on a play this season. This led to creating scoring opportunities for her and others. She spent time playing as a forward and outside midfielder. Her hustle, positivity, and enthusiasm to learn are what the coaches loved from her most. Her passion and love for the game is why I nominate her for this award.

Sara Breitschwerdt, 12

Sarah showed tremendous leadership this season. She gave 100% effort whenever she was on the field. Sarah used her witty humor to keep the team positive throughout the season. She never complains and she does whatever she is asked. It was a pleasure coaching her.

SOCCKER: JUNIOR VARSITY

Hannah Tombrello, 10

Hannah was trusted as the last man for the defense. She took most free kicks for the team. She did everything her coaches asked. She always played each game with 110%. Hannah demonstrated a willingness to learn by always seeking tips on how the backline should be playing against certain teams. Hannah is a smart player and a very positive player.

Alyssa Lopez, 11

Alyssa was a captain this season. She showed leadership by setting the example with hard work during practices and games. She was able to play multiple positions with the same amount of efficiency. Even with a few bumps and bruises (small injuries) Alyssa demonstrated love for the game by playing through it or still practicing.

WATER POLO: VARSITY

Madison Rodriguez, 12

Madison did a great job of leading with a tremendous attitude. Madi had team first attitude and incorporated her teammates whenever possible. Madison is a great emotional leader. Madison communicated very effectively and really supported the program and everyone involved. Madi's composure was integral in many instances, she is someone her teammates could count on anytime.

Madison was 3rd on the team in goals and had an impact on both the offense and defensive ends. Her physical play set the tone for us in big moments.

Amy Inkrott, 12

Amy was our team leader in many ways. She is our Captain and she set the tone for our team culture. Continuously pushing in practice, constantly motivating her teammates with her actions and words of encouragement. Amy personifies servant leadership, always putting others first and fulfilling whatever the program needed from her.

Amy is a very versatile player. She started as a defender for us. She moved to a perimeter player whose main objective was as a ball handler and a facilitator. We could put her in any role that we needed to fill and she would meet or exceed the expectations of that position.

WATER POLO: JUNIOR VARSITY

Mariam Tadros, 12

Mariam had a great attitude and always gave her best effort. Mariam knew her role and executed it to the utmost. Mariam was a great leader and someone that the coaches, as well as her teammates, could count on.

As a goalie, she is the backbone of our defense, Mariam averaged 8 saves per game. Her strong arm for outlet passes ignited our counter attack and helped get our offense going. A large part of our team success is a direct result of Mariam.

Grace Rowland, 9

Grace stepped up into a leadership role immediately upon her joining the team. Grace has physical tools and skills to be a successful water polo player but it is her positive attitude and relentless work ethic that led to our team success.

Grace was the defender. Her primary objective was to shut down the opposing teams best player and she was very successful. Grace was the team leader in steals and assists.
