

St. Lucy's Welcomes New Governing Board of Directors

St. Lucy's Governing Board of Directors. Seated (L-R): Sister Helen Dziuk and Sister Elizabeth Brown. Back row (L-R): Antoinette Dunbar, Laura Dandoy, Sister Joan Marie Sasse and Jon Krellwitz. Not pictured: Susan Hyland.

St. Lucy's has embarked on a new chapter in leadership with an expanded Governing Board of Directors as part of its efforts toward continuing responsible management for the good of the young women we educate and the legacy of St. Lucy's. The Board of Directors will provide additional foundational and informed support for the school's future and ensure professional rigor and accountability in the areas of Student Services, Academics, Finance/Operations and Advancement.

The Board will consist of seven members of school administrators and local business owners who bring their unique experiences and talents to their new roles. Board members include Sister Elizabeth Brown as Corporation President, Sister Helen Dziuk as Corporation Vice President and Treasurer, and Sister Joan Marie Sasse as Corporation Secretary/Retreat Leader. Joining them as officers are Laura Dandoy, a former member of St. Lucy's Consultative Board and co-owner of The Real Estate Group/REMAX in Claremont, Antoinette Dunbar, an educational consultant and past Deputy Superintendent of Miami Dade School District, Susan Hyland, former member of St. Lucy's Consultative Board and owner

These new changes with how St. Lucy's will be governed will strengthen our school's mission and bring fresh ideas to how our school grows and moves into the future...

—Sister Helen Dziuk

of the Claremont Club, and Jon Krellwitz, partner in Krellwitz and Kurimoto Financial Planning and investment liaison with Legend Equities Corporation in San Dimas.

"These new changes with how St. Lucy's will be governed will strengthen our school's mission and bring fresh ideas to how our school grows and moves into the future," says Sister Helen Dziuk. "We are looking forward to working closely together with faculty, staff, parents and alumnae throughout the year and are committed to serving the academic, personal and spiritual growth of young women for generations to come."